

Raffle to Benefit the Music Program
At
Our Lady of Mercy School

This one of a kind guitar is hand made from some of the finest and rarest quarter sawn wood in the world. The soundboard is Spruce while the neck is Honduran Mahogany. The fingerboard is Madagascar Ebony and the back and sides are Bloodwood imported from South America. The tuners are Schaller with Ebony buttons. The nut and saddle are carved out of bone. The sound quality and physical beauty of this guitar are exceptional.

Tickets are $10 each.

Only 1,000 tickets will be sold

Date: Thursday, May 13th @ 7:30pm

Buyers of 10 tickets or more are invited for an evening of wine and cheese featuring classical guitar music at the home of Jim and Sabra Abbate. The Raffle will take place the night of the 13th

Charity

J. Anthony is an independent Luthier, creating guitars one at a time in his small shop. Though handcrafted instruments often sell for thousands of dollars, J. Anthony is committed to the non-profit enterprise of raising money for charity.
